Skills and Employment

Essential Skills

Document Use Indicator

A Guide for Employers

his tool can be used by employers to learn more about the Document Use skills of their employees. It gives an indication of skill levels by providing examples of Level 1 and Level 2 assessment questions. Using this tool allows employers to:

- obtain useful information about the skills employees bring to the workplace;
- identify current employees' training needs; and
- improve workplace training to target specific skill areas for improvement.

The questions duplicate actual workplace tasks performed in a variety of occupations but they do not require specialized knowledge to be correctly answered.

Instructions:

- 1. Ensure that employees read and understand the instructions prior to completing the Indicator.
- 2. Detach the Correction Sheet from the questions section.
- 3. Set a time limit for employees to complete the Indicator. Typically, it should take no more than 20 minutes to complete.
- 4. Mark the Indicator using the Correction Sheet, awarding one mark for each correct answer. Do not award partial marks.

Helpful Tips:

- Employers may want to give employees the opportunity to self-administer and mark the tool.
- Scores should always be kept confidential.
- Indicators are also available for other Essential Skills.
- If employees do not obtain at least a Level 2 on the Indicator, you may want to consider offering training and support to improve Document Use skills.

Important Note:

Administering this tool to employees will provide an indication of their skill levels. It should not be considered an assessment tool. The Indicator is meant to be a training tool that can be used to help you identify skills that may require upgrading in the workplace.

Document Use Indicator

A Guide for Employees

he Essential Skills Document Use Indicator is a tool designed to help you better understand your Document Use skills. It consists of 10 examples of assessment questions to give you an indication of your skill level. The first 5 questions are easier (Level 1) and the next 5 are slightly more difficult (Level 2).

Essential Skills levels range from Level 1 (basic) to Level 4/5 (advanced). You can use the Indicator to help identify if Document Use is an area where you might need some additional training. Improving your skills can help you perform your job more effectively or prepare for a career change.

The questions in the Indicator are based on actual document use tasks performed in the workplace. You do not need specialized knowledge to answer any of the questions.

Some questions require limited use of other skills. For example, you have to use Reading skills to understand a Document Use question.

Instructions:

- 1. Allow yourself no more than 20 minutes to complete the Indicator.
- 2. Write your answers directly on the Indicator in the space provided.
- 3. If you are marking your own Indicator, use the Correction Sheet provided at the back. Give yourself one point for each correct answer. Do not give yourself partial marks.

Helpful Tips:

- If you do not know the answer to a question, skip it and move on to the next question. You can always come back to it later.
- Use the Indicator to help identify areas in which you may need skills upgrading.
- Indicators are also available for other Essential Skills.
- If you did not achieve at least a Level 2 on the Indicator, you may want to consider upgrading your Document Use skills.
